ONE NINETY

The priciest burger of the lot, One Ninety's beef burger is kept classic served with tomatoes, greens, onions and a side of shoestring fries. No frills, the focus is entirely on the Wagyu patty, which is well seared to a perfect medium, and is flavourful with juices overflowing. Cooked over applewood charcoal, the patty has a delicate smoky flavour to it. Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts, 190 Orchard Boulevard, Tel: 6831 7250

TWO BLUR GUYS

This hole in the wall in Tanjong Pagar does a pretty mean beef burger that is served with gruyère cheese and truffle mayonnaise, and with sides of greens and potato salad. Not cooked on a grill, the patty didn't have a distinct crust or char marks on its surface, but its flesh has a slight touch of pink, is moist, tender, and had our plate running with juices when we cut into it. The truffle mayonnaise is rather insignificant though. Orchid Hotel, 1 Tras Link, Tel: 6636 4183

HUMMERSTONS

Hummerstons' beef burger patty is plump, juicy and über moist. Not only that, but made with the whole works—mesclun greens, roma tomatoes, melted oak
