

Franchise Crew FAQ:

Question	Answer
What is a CB Team?	A CupSpoon™ Team consists of CB1 (Home Brewer) and CB2 (Deliverer). You can be one or both.
How much can I earn?	Teams can earn up to \$5,000/month , depending on delivery volume and performance.
Do I need experience?	No experience required. We provide full training and support.
Do I need to buy anything?	No. CupSpoon™ provides the fridge, materials, and startup kit. You only need your space and time.
Do I need to own a fridge?	No. CupSpoon™ provides a certified cold-brew station (FSS) upon approval.
Is this full-time or part-time?	Currently, we are only accepting full-time CB Teams. This ensures consistent coverage and stable income for our franchise crews.
Do I need a bicycle or scooter?	If you are a CB2 (Deliverer), yes — but we accept walkers for small zones too. Please note: we are currently only accepting full CB Teams (CB1 + CB2), not individuals.
Can I serve my own block?	Yes. You will select up to 20 nearby blocks you are confident to serve.
Can I choose which zones I cover?	Yes. You will be assigned 20 nearby postal codes after registration. You may request changes before final approval.
How long before I can start?	Typically within 1–2 weeks after registration and approval.
What if I don't have a CB partner?	Only full CB Teams (CB1 + CB2) are being accepted at this time
Is this a franchise?	Yes, this is a micro-franchise business. As a CB team, you operate your own mini beverage station under the CupSpoon™ brand. You'll sign a lightweight franchise agreement that protects your rights while allowing you to grow your own income through a structured and supported model.
